Scottburgh Golf Club

No. holes : 18
Par : 69
Course rating : 69 men, 71 women
Length (m) : 5323 men, 5014 women
Pro Shop : Yes
Club & caddy hire : Yes
Pub & catering : Yes
Physical location : cnr. Taylor & Williamson Streets, Scottburgh
Contact details : scottburghgolf@telkomsa.net

Course description : Not the longest course, but very challenging on a windy day. The 'white-knuckle' par-4, with intruding coastal forest and out-of-bounds, has demolished many a good golfer and can there be a more special ending than teeing up on the 18th?

Selborne Park Country Club

No. holes : 18
Par : 72
Course rating : 70 men, 69 women
Length (m) : 5614 men, 4797 women
Pro Shop : Yes
Club & caddy hire : Yes
Pub & catering : Yes
Physical location : Old Main Road (R102), Pennington
Contact details : golfops@selborne.com

Course description : Originally an old dairy farm, Selborne has developed into one of South Africa's finest golf estates. Modelled on Pebble Beach, Gleneagles and Augusta the feature holes include the long, thread-the-needle, par-5 third and all the par-3s which are uniquely different.

Umdoni Park Golf Club

No. holes : 18
Par : 72
Course rating : 69 men, 70 women
Length (m) : 5572 men, 4965 women

Pro Shop : Yes
 Club & caddy hire : Yes
 Pub & catering : Lounge & Bar
 Physical location : off Minerva Road, Pennington
 Contact details : umdonigolf@telkomsa.net

Course description: While Umdoni's hilly layout affords spectacular sea views, the par-5 eighth and par-3 sixteenth feature holes - both with elevated tees - will fully test your distance judgment. Afterwards enjoy the warm welcome and quiet charm of their Colonial-style clubhouse.

Amanzimtoti Golf Club

No. holes : 18
 Par : 72
 Course rating : 70 men, 71 women
 Length (m) : 5816 men, 5043 women
 Pro Shop : Yes
 Club & caddy hire : Yes
 Pub & catering : Yes
 Physical location : 1 Golf Course Road, Athlone Park, Amanzimtoti
 Contact details : totigolfclub@icon.co.za

Course description : Criss-crossing a river and with a distinct 'links-like' feel, 'Toti's golf course offers visitors a very unique and challenging design – especially when the wind comes up. Though not long, you'll find the greens a true test of your putting skills.

San Lameer Country Club

No. holes : 18
 Par : 72
 Course rating : 70 men, 71 women
 Length (m) : 5834 men, 5055 women
 Pro Shop : Yes
 Club & caddy hire : Yes
 Pub & catering : Bar & halfway house
 Physical location : San Lameer Estate, Old Main Rd (R61) - past Marina Beach

Contact details : schalk.golf@sanlameer.co.za

Course description : With water coming into play on 12 of its 18 holes, San Lameer is not for the faint-hearted. What you will get though is a top mental and playing challenge on what is rated amongst South Africa's premier courses.

Running & MTB

Umdoni parkrun - Weekly Free 5km Timed Run

Umdoni parkrun takes place every Saturday at 8:00am

What is Umdoni parkrun?

It is a 5km run - it's you against the clock.

When is it?

Every Saturday at 8:00am.

Course Description

The course is 1 lap clockwise, starting and ending at the Umdoni Park Environmental Centre. The route is marked on the way

Where is it?

The event takes place at Umdoni Park Environmental Centre, Pennington, 5013.

Getting there by road

Take R 102 (Old South Coast Road) going south past Park Rynie and Kelso to Pennington. Take second turn left to Pennington at Pennington Drive, then 4th road right, Minerva Avenue.

Follow until you see the Umdoni Park entrance/ gate - fill in security book. Follow road and take first right (400 m) at signpost parkrun. Follow road for approximately 600 m. Arrive at Start/Parking area.

What does it cost to join in?

Nothing - it's free! But please register before your first run. Only ever register with parkrun once. Don't forget to bring a printed copy of your barcode (request a reminder). If you forget it, you won't get a time.

Any other questions? Got to: <http://www.parkrun.co.za/umdoni/>

MTB and Running Trails (Rocky Bay):

Rocky Bay Resorts - Trails consists of an easy 12km as well as a 19km, 9km and then the more challenging 40km MTB trails. As well as 4, 6, 8 and 10km Running Trails. All Trails are marked and signed.

There are trails for both novice and experienced mountain bikers alike. Riders are amazed at the variety of track and spectacular scenery that is available. There is plenty of track for the newer riders and it will finally give many people who want to get into mountain biking the chance to get out without getting lost and risking trespassing. The Trails are a system of marked mountain biking trails (marked in orange) and running Trails (marked in green) on Ellingham Estate Farm. Only riders with an entry permit are allowed accesses to the farmlands, those without permits are trespassing and risk prosecution.

This arrangement was carefully negotiated with the private landowners because of uncontrolled MTB riding in the area. The Sugar Baron Restaurant welcomes all riders and runners to enjoy a meal and refreshments. A Jungle Gym and Kids Corner are available at the main lodge as well as ablutions and a dip in the brilliant refreshing fresh water swimming pool is a winner.

Rates:

R20 per entry cash honesty box at Security Gate – (please take exact cash no change is available.)

Entry Cards are available at the Lodge Reception payment may be made by cash or card during office hours Monday to Friday 8am to 4pm Saturday, Sunday and Public Holidays 8am to 12 noon.

4 Trail entries - R 70.00

8 Trail entries - R130.00

16 Trail entries - R260.00

Day Trips

Vernon Crookes Nature Reserve

This 2,189 ha nature reserve is definitely the jewel in the KwaZulu-Natal south coast protected areas crown. The reserve conserves a representative and well managed example of the coastal grasslands and coastal forest habitats of the southern KwaZulu-Natal, and the biodiversity that these habitat types support.

The reserve boasts a wide variety of different habitats, including scarp forest, extensive grasslands, rivers, wetlands, cliff faces, and dams which provide a haven and shelter for a wide variety of wildlife which exist in the reserve.

Game animals that occur in the reserve include : zebra, blue wildebeest, bushbuck, blesbuck, impala, blue duiker, black backed jackal, dassies, mountain and common reedbuck and many more.

Due to its wide variety of habitats over 300 bird species have been recorded in the reserve, and it is especially renowned for its wide variety of grass land species. Some of the birds seen on a regular basis are grey crowned cranes, crowned eagles, martial eagles, ground hornbills, trumpeter hornbills, secretary bird and black duck.

The visitor facilities are stunning, and include 19 km of tourist roads, a nature trail network of 15 km [one can walk portions of the trail system, depending on time available, or fitness of participants] a excellent picnic site with braai and ablution facilities. In addition to this the is also the Nyengelezi hutted camp, which provides 20 beds, and tucked away in the forest is a self contained 7 bed tree house.

The 15km of trails can be accessed at different points within the reserve, but most visitors start their walks either from the hutted camp, picnic site or reception office. Visitors can choose trails which can vary from one hours to six hours. The trails traverse a wide variety of habitats in the reserve, from open grassland, parkland and forest. The manner in which the trails have been designed is to provide visitors with a wide variety of habitats during each walk, so that no matter how long or short the walk is, a varied experience is always experienced.

All of the trails are clearly signposted, and are maintained on a regular basis.

To find the reserve, turn off the N2 highway at the Park Rynie / Umzinto fly-over and take the Highflats / Ixopo road. The reserve turn off is approximately 3 km past the town of Umzinto, 12.5 km from the freeway, and the entrance gate is 6 km from the turn off. A small entrance fee of R 20.00 per adult and R 10.00 per child is charged at the entrance gate (2016).

Crocworld

Crocworld Conservation Centre exists to connect people to nature and encourages people to embrace it as part of their lifestyle. It offers a fun and exciting ½ day out for the whole family. Take the R102 thru Scottburgh and follow the direction boards.

Lake Eland Nature Reserve (Oribi Gorge)

COVERING AN IMPRESSIVE 2500 HECTARES WITH DIVERSE ECOSYSTEMS OF BUSHVELD, GRASSLAND, COASTAL FOREST AND WETLAND THIS NATURAL LANDSCAPE OFFERS A PLACE OF PEACE AND TRANQUILITY.

Activities to choose from include a self game drive, viewing the abundant wild life and flora to be seen from the comfort of your car. In addition guests can walk across our 80m suspension bridge, as well as our fabulous Zip Line Tour.

Horse rides, walking and single track mountain bike trails, paint ball, fishing, picnic sites and specific 4x4 track are available.

The restaurant and fully licensed tea garden is close to a children's playground

Lake Eland Game Reserve is a 35 minute drive inland from Port Shepstone.

From Durban (+/-123 Km) take the N2 south-bound towards Port Shepstone.

At the Oribi Plaza off-ramp follow the N2 inland (turning right over the bridge across the freeway) and travel towards Kokstad/Harding on the N2.

After 11km (at the top of a long climb) look out for a sign on the left indicating "ORIBI FLATS EAST"; "Southern Explorer T3" and well as "Lake Eland" and turn right.

This is the D219. Travel for 26km on this road, passing the NPC cement factory and Igwala Quarry, and other establishments such as Leopards Rock.

Do not turn off anywhere. The last 4km are on gravel/ dirt road – to the Lake Eland Game Reserve Entrance. FOLLOW the "Eland" on the side of the road.

Waffle House, Ramsgate

Established in 1957, this historical South Coast landmark is nestled in tranquil sub-tropical edge of the Ramsgate Lagoon. Once you've tasted their unique waffles, finish your visit with a leisurely walk across the quaint wooden bridge to the beautiful Ramsgate beach for a swim or a laze on the sand.
